“ Although I did not personally know Melissa I did however, have the pleasure of working with her dad, Mike for a handful of years. She sounds like she shared in his values and turned into a lovely young woman with a zest for life. Mike, I am so very sorry for your loss. No one should ever feel the pain of having to bury a child. “ Missi was my friend throughout grade school, we were both viola players in the orchestra. She was so friendly and brightened everyone's day; I honestly don't think she ever had anything rude or mean to say about anyone. I am so sad to hear of her passing, and I can't imagine what her loved ones are going through right now. Missi will always be someone to look up to for her kind spirit, and the world will be a little less bright every day without her. I'm so, so sorry for your family's loss.
