“ I met Mike through our mutual involvement with the Kankakee Valley Sail and Power Squadron. ĩ½He was a fellow sailor and we shared a lot of good times on the water and off. ĩ½I wish I could have known him longer; but the few years we shared showed me what a smart, loving, caring person he was. ĩ½He was an enthusiastic participant and supporter of our local squadron. ĩ½We will dearly miss him. ĩ½Our deepest sympathy and prayers to Donna and family.##imported-begin##Louise Potter##imported-end##

“ Dear Clarys' - please know you are all in my thoughts and prayers during this sad time in your family. I never knew Mike, but if the rest of the Clary clan is any indication, the world just lost one of the good guys. Jane and Diane, I'm sorry I can't attend the wake, but you and your family will be in my thoughts and prayers in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Becky Wilder##imported-end##

“ I've only known Michael for a few short years and will miss him greatly as I'm sure that everyone who knew him will also. My condolences to his wife Donna and their family and relatives.

Traveling with God

Life is just a journey
That everyone must make;
Sometimes it leads to sorrow,
In this land of give and take.
You can encounter danger
When the storms of life pass by,
Or you can feel warm sunshine
As you stop and rest awhile.
Cold winds are often blowing,
Then ice and snow we see;
The glitter is like jewels,
As it sparkles from each tree.
Sometimes the birds are singing,
And the flowers are in bloom;
There's often clouds and raindrops
And life seems dark with gloom.
There's beauty and there's sorrow
On the road that you must trod,
But you can overcome all odds,
If you travel it with God.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy in the families time of need. I have recently been through the same type of loss with the loss of my mother Delores and would like to say that it is difficult but gets easier with each passing day. At first you think how much you will miss your loved one and then you start to think of the good times and the happy times. If you need anything please don't hesitate to call or if you need a listening ear.##imported-begin##Tonya Gullquist##imported-end##

“ God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be. So He put His arms around you and whispered "come to me." With tearful eyes they watched you, and saw you pass away. “ "I am standing on the shore as a great ship gently glides from the harbor and sails toward the horizon. ĩ¿½She is beautiful. Sails billowing; and shining bright as sunlight sparkling on distant waters. She grows smaller and smaller until at last, her white sails shine as ribbons out where the sky and water mingle as one.And as I watch, a voice behind me says,"Well, she's gone." She's gone. Gone? "No," I tell myself. No, she is not really gone. Not really. She is gone only in the sense that I can no longer see her. In reality, she is the same as ever; just as beautiful; just as shining. And deep in my heart I know, that on another shore someone is crying out, "Look! Look everyone! Here she comes!" (Author unknown)So it is with our friend and shipmate Mike. ĩ¿½We know he has found a safe harbor. ĩ¿½May God grant comfort to Donna and his entire family.Kankakee Valley Sail & Power Squadron###imported-begin###Robert Potter###imported-end###
