I couldn't get Michael off my mind today. I don't know why. Bless his heart, he was ending his battle with cancer as I was still fighting mine. Michael, you were my best friend in high school and beyond. You really turned out to be a TRULY GREAT MAN! You loved Emily so much, your eyes would glow, and your children, they got the best of both worlds a Father that would do anything to keep his children safe and on the right path, and a playmate the so called "Peter Pan" of dads. How fortunate every soul that came in touch with Michael was left a better person. I wish I had had the opportunity to see you one last time, to have that one last conversation, and one last Michael hug before we said that final good-bye. It wasn't meant to be. Know always you and your beautiful family will ever be in my heart and always in my prayers to watch over Emily Wesley, & Elise. Watch over my sons Uncle Monkey! NO more pain, no more sorrows, no more tears. Heaven has the best smile ever! Always, Always Your Friend, Mikee ~Donna~

“ Michael's kindness, sense of humor and dedication to his family and friends brightened our lives as he grew up in Des Plaines. We were filled with happiness when he became a police officer and married the love of his life, Emily. His love for his family and all he met, has inspired us through the years. What sadness fills our hearts as we now mourn his loss. May God's love surround you and uphold you. With our deepest sympathy, Michael and Virginia Haase
