“ A few weeks ago, I spoke with Mike at Ultra Foods. I had a ? and he was standing nearby, and said "Mrs. James, do you remember me, you were my third grade teacher". Of course, then I could see, that was Mike. We visited for several minutes, catching up on Kim and Mom and Dad. I was stunned to see the newspaper. From reading the other tributes, I can see he was a good man.
May God bless all your family, prayers for all of you. Karen James

“ I was fortunate enough to meet Mike through my nephew Pat when they were attending WIU. We became friends immediately sharing a love of sports and music. I was thrilled to hear from Mike recently via Facebook and he would message me with some off the wall comments regarding some smokin hot peppers he ate on a dare at our house 20 some years ago. We kept planning a day for him to come over to fish and how I wish that had occurred. Occasionally in some messages Mike would mention how he loved my wife and I and that really summed up Mike. Never afraid to show those in his life how much they meant to him. A huge heart for friends and life. The world needs more people like Mike. My prayers for the family and Mike's friends. “ Dear Family and Friends of Michael Prince: I extend my sympathy to everyone who loved and knew Mike. Just by reading what other people wrote tells me how beloved Michael was by numerous people. Sounds like Mike had a wonderful sense of humor. I knew Duane Bertrand from my chaplaincy role at Provena Heritage Village. Duane talked a lot about his grandchildren. Heaven is a beautiful place as Mike reunites with his maternal grandparents. Many blessings of comfort and peace.
Sincerely,
Chaplain Carole R. DiZeo Director of Pastoral Care at Provena Heritage Village

“ A Tribute to Mike,
Family, friend, kind and gentle, polite, loving and forgiving ... it's how we remember Mike. From his days as a little boy ,, Christmas birthdays to "Buster the Cat's little house in the basement", to "won't you come home" ... Always a smile, a chuckle and laugh at a joke or some silly thing committed by a cousin. We loved his quick-witted humor and jovial personality! We admired his knowledge and loyalty to his Chicago sports teams - with every sport he was a walking encyclopedia and authority.

For all of us, Mike always offered a firm handshake or an endearing hug with a smile - always with a smilegenuine in every regard. All of us should reflect on and learn from Mike's positive attributes. Remember and treasure them as life's finest qualities. Thank you Mike for sharing with us.

On your arrival Home, Mike, we pray that you have found everlasting peace and solace in your New Life. We also pray that all those you loved and touched will celebrate your life and cherish and share their special memories of you.

We love you Mike. Peace be with you.

“ It's been forever since I talked to Mike but there was a group of kids a long time ago that I remember allowing a new kid to start hanging around with them. Going to play baseball with them. A new kid couldn't have asked for a better group of friends.

I'm sorry I didn't keep in touch.

RIP Mike.

Now you're in heaven looking down. Hopefully one day I'll see you again.

“ My heart is saddened by the loss of my very dear friend Mike Prince. He touched many lives and genuinely cared for everyone. Mike was a big part of my life for so many years and in so many ways. We worked together and were roommates for many years. He was in my wedding and was at the hospital when both of my children were born. I will never forget his kind heart and how much he meant to everyone he met. The world was definitely a happier place with Mike in it. I pray that he watches over me the way he always did and that someday we will meet again. Rest In Peace Mike, may you find total happiness in heaven. My thoughts and prayers are with Jim and Nancy and all of the rest of the family. Mike is in a better place and will always remain in our hearts.

“ I first met Mike when we worked together at Ruby Tuesdays. He worked in the kitchen as a cook and I was a server. You would think there was war going on between the cooks and the servers most nights during our shifts, but once the maddness ended we were back to being friends. Mike was always common ground though. He was Never in a bad mood, worked with a smile, and always made sure we got what needed to make our tabels happy :) Mike had a smile that made your heart melt when you seen him. I couldn't be in a bad mood when he was around. He always knew just what to say to make me smile. I miss those days at Ruby's and I surely will miss Mike very much.

My heart goes out to Mike's Family today... when the sun is shining, think of that warm bright smile he has and remember that he is always with you.

*Much love to Jim, Nancy, Kim, and the rest of the family
God Bless*
