“ Grandma Millie,

Thank you so much for the love and life you've shared with us. I have so many memories from my childhood that you helped form. One of my fondest was being introduced to some of the colloquialisms from your own childhood in Mississippi. I remember you were the first to ever ask me to "Cut the light off", which at the time made me laugh and giggle while I pictured myself with scissors and a chandelier. You were my first introduction to the South and way of interacting with people that I cherish. You helped mold me into the man I am today, and I am eternally grateful for it.

You will be dearly missed.

Love, Richie

“ Grandma Millie,

I remember coming to your house everyday, just to sit and watch tv with you, or to see if you had any snacks, or just to get away from Dickie and Brandon. I remember yours was the first house I would visit on Halloween to say trick or treat. And you would ask me what I was and say how cute it was then drop 2 pieces of candy in my bag because i was your favorite. I wish I could be there to say goodbye. I wish I had stopped by to say hello. I hope you went without pain or suffering. I hope you knew how much you were loved and how much you will be missed. Your with Jesus now, in eternal sunshine. I love you grandma Millie.
