

Mildred Stephens

September 5, 1929 - March 30, 2007

Mildred Stephens -- Sarasota, Fla. Mildred L. Stephens, 77, of Sarasota, Fla., formerly of Kankakee, died March 30, 2007 at Sarasota Memorial Hospital. Private services were held April 1 at Palms Funeral Home in Sarasota. Private burial was held April 4 at Kankakee Memorial Gardens. Arrangements were by Clancy-Gernon-Hertz Funeral Home, west Kankakee. Mrs. Stephens was a housewife. She was born Sept. 5, 1929, in Albion, Ill., the daughter of Earl and Stella "Weedman" Barber. Her husband, R.Q. "Steve" Stephens, whom she married July 26, 1947, in Kankakee, passed away July 25, 2003. She was of the Christian faith. Our mother enjoyed knitting, along with crocheting, crafts of all kinds, oil painting, water painting and trying new recipes out of cookbooks. Our mother enjoyed being around her loved ones and friends sharing good times and a few laughs. The biggest laugh came when she would go to tell a joke and said the punch line before the joke was ever finished. Our mother took one day at a time. Even toward the end, with sickness overtaking her, and she was tired, her sense of humor was there with her, all the way. Mom, we thank you for being who you were and still are, in the hearts of all who loved you and knew you. Remembering you always and forever. Your friends and family, daughters and sons-in-law, Bonita and Kyle Tschiegg of Sarasota, Debbie and Don Goin of Bourbonnais.

Tribute Wall

“ My sincere sympathy to Bonita and all of her family. May you be comforted by the joy, love, and caring she gave you all of her life and may the Words of the Good Lord comfort you with the promise of the resurrection and the reuniting of loved ones in His name.##imported-begin##Bill Maass##imported-end##

April 19, 2007 at 03:32 PM

“ Debbie , You have been in my thoughts and prayers. I had been watching the newspapers for any information. I finally saw it in tonights paper. I was so sorry to hear of your loss. I will keep you in my prayers.##imported-begin##Angela Parks##imported-end##

April 19, 2007 at 03:32 PM