

Mitchell Patnaude

December 26, 1979 - March 31, 2017

Mitchell (Mitch) Patnaude was granted his angel wings on March 31, 2017. His final days had been spent with family and friends that have all been touched by his love, kindness and generosity in his short but very memorable life.

Mitch's life would seem too short to many but those that knew him understand that the quality of existence far exceeds the quantity of time in which one lives.

Mitch is survived by his mother and father, Traci A Power and L Patrick Power, his brother Matthew S. McLean and Monica Solus (Chicago) his step sister Christine Power (Bradley) niece Hayley Godin and step brother Brian (Carol) Power (Kankakee) and nephew Lee Power. His Godmother Catherine Berry, his stepfather Kenny McLean and many other extended family members played an important part in his life.

Mitch was loved and adored by Heather Cranston (Bradley) whom he shared a beautiful home and puppy (Jocce) that was dearly loved.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents Russell and JoAnn Patnaude and Delores Mc Lean.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests you make a donation in Mitch's name to Cameron Kanoski (Camstrong) to aid in his battle against leukemia.

Memorial visitation will be held on Saturday from 12:00 noon to 3:00 PM at Clancy-Gernon-Hertz Funeral Home, West Kankakee. A Memorial Service will be held at 3:00 PM also at the funeral home.

“ Hey Mitch how's the weather where your at? While attending Olivet, I'd take the kids to school and swing by and pickup Mitch and Matt for school. Not hi Jeff hey Jeremy. No Mitch gave a 5 minute weather report with all the hand motions , big eyes, and in case of bad weather,,,,the scary serious voice. It cracked me up every morning. Jeff hill. Jeremys dad

“ There is no greater legacy to leave than having had a positive impact on the lives of others. The number of stories of Mitch's generosity, kindness and selflessness are truly too many to count. He would be proud to be remembered in that way because he aspired to be his best self. And he was his best self, despite having more hurdles to overcome than just about anyone you could meet. Whether it was helping someone without being asked, sticking up for those who were down, or knowing when others were in pain or in need, Mitch always seemed to turn up at just the right time.

Sometimes it takes a tragedy to put a life into context. In the context of Mitch's life, any of his shortcomings were vastly outweighed by what he did for others. We should all aspire to live a life that is remembered so fondly, so joyously and by so many.

“ As I write this, still remembering the one silly thing you asked me to do so long ago, I giggle, but my heart is heavy for so many who are saddened that your life here is over and your new journey begun. It is my hope that all the good memories you left us with bring comfort in the days ahead to all who are missing you.
You will remain in our hearts and thoughts forever.
As God wraps you in his loving comfort , we will hold you forever in our hearts until we meet again.

“ Mitch came into our lives 13 years ago. We will never be able to forget him because there isn't a room in our home where he didn't leave his very talented carpentry skills. From his tile work to a custom-made headboard, not to mention his beautifully painted walls. Mitch never hesitated to lend a hand. Our thoughts and prayers will be with Traci and Pat in the days ahead.

“ He loved Traci and Pat so much. Before Heather, he said you were all he cared about, those two there. The pain we are going through, I can't imagine how hard this is for you. He was the toughest and the kindest. The world has grown a little colder. He will be missed every day. We loved him, always will. Our deepest sympathy for your loss.
