“ My first memory of Nancy was the day my son brought her over for Sunday dinner. He walked in with this beautiful blonde haired girl with the brightest smile you ever seen. She then proceeded to tell me about her self and I knew right then and there that one day she would have a permanent place in our lives.

She was a very bright girl. Ron and Nancy competed against each other regarding their grades in college where they met. After graduating from College, Nancy got a job as a Director at Goodheart Wilcox and Ron went on to Law school.

I can remember the day they announced that I would be a grandma, it was on my birthday, the best birthday ever as it brought me my beautiful granddaughter. Nancy loved being a mom and was very happy to be a parent.

Eventually as so often happens Ron and Nancy were divorced, but she remained a huge part of our family. We remained very close until the day she died. I am so grateful that she was the mother of my granddaughter and am every grateful for all she did for Kristi.

May God be waiting at the Pearly gates to receive you as your soul will surely go straight to heaven. My dear Nancy, you have and will continue to have a positive effect on our family.
