“ I was deeply saddened by the loss of my old friend. Although we have not kept in contact, I will still miss her and she has left us way too soon. I had planned on attending her service on Wednesday, but came down with something...a wicked headache or a touch of the flu. I was very disappointed to not be able to attend. My thoughts and prayers are with the whole family at this sorrowful time. My love to all.

“ *Dolores, Mallory, and Family,
My heart felt condolences to everyone. I was saddened and shocked at the news of Nannette's passing. She is now sitting with her father once again. Your family now has yet another guardian angel to watch over you. I will keep all of you in my thoughts and prayers. Mallory, Aunt Shell and Madison both are bringing you special hugs from me. God Speed to all of you. Love and prayers.*

“ To the LeBeau Family,

My heart goes out to everyone for the lost of a great person. My prays and thoughts go out to each one. I have been reminded of all our great times together, So now we can say that Lynell has people upstairs and knowing Lynell as well as we all do, she is partying with Nannette and my son James. Please keep in touch, my heart goes out to each one. God Bless you all.

Your friend always,
