“ My sympathies to Norma's family. Our whole family was in Tennessee and I only read about her passing today She and Don sold me my first home in Aroma Park in 1967. My girls used to "break-in" the pony ride ponies at the beginning of the season and Norma would take them for the week to the K3 County Fair. Wonderful people and she will be missed.

“ Norma was one of the sweetest woman I have ever know. Always had a smile and a ear to listen to your troubles. Rarely did she ever complain about anything. We had many discussions, and shared hugs, during her years of coming into Paperback Reader. All of us have been blessed for knowing her.

The family she left behind is in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Our family, Ken and Darlene Johnston, moved to AP the summer before my second grade, 1961. My sisters are Sharon and Anna. We lived down the street, south of the Montalta farm, on Division and Fifth. The Montalta farm was like Disneyland to me. It seemed like the coolest place on earth. I visited there only a few times and loved those few times. I didn't know the family well, but I always had warm feelings because they seemed like such awesome people. I remember Don running the horse and sleigh down the street during the winters that provided enough snow. I guess what I want to say to the family is this: Even though I didn't know you well, your family was a very fond part of my growing up in Aroma Park. Sometimes just being who we are has a huge positive impact on people we are not even aware of. Don and Norma were that for me. So today, in her memory, I say "thank you" for those memories. Love. Hugs. And Gods blessings to you all. Susan Johnston Ruiz. Easton, CA. (Near Fresno. Kinda like AP is to Kankakee. :))
