“ Our sincere condolences to the family of Norma Timm. We did not know Norma, but we have become friends with the family especially John and Ruth. It was through John and Ruth that we met and became friends to Anna and Terry Martell. Our prayers are with you at this time. We support you in your time of need.

“ So sorry for your loss. My memories are few but good ones. She was pretty as I remember her from my younger days and looked a lot like Grandma Brandt. Unfortunately our families were not close and my folks moved a lot. I wish I had known her and been closer. Anna looks like her and has been there for her mom all along. May God hold her close and give her peace forever.
