“ Aunt Ray, Nancy, Mike and Jack~Wow, what memories we will cherish ~ Just thinking of Uncle Norm brings a smile to my face! Always a great welcome to see you, with quick wit or an athletic challenge. One can never forget the under water swim master....I can just hear the playful banter between Norm and his sons to see who can come out on top!We loved to listen to your stories of growing up with Dad in a family of 10 kids - it made 6 seem so meager.Your selfless act of saving your friend while fishing impacted alot of us.We will miss him, ~ Glad to have been a part of your life. “ We want to express our deepest condolences to Aunt Rachel, Jack, Mike, Nancy and family on the loss of our Uncle Norm. We always enjoyed his kidding around, stories and laughter he shared. We will also have some great memories of him at our get togethers in Chicago. All of you are in our thoughts and prayers at this time. Let us know how we can support you during these days and months ahead. Love to all.Cousin Terri, Jerry and girls##imported-begin##Terri, Jerry, Elissa, Marie Hamm##imported-end##
