

Odis Gale Linthicum

November 27, 1926 - August 16, 2011

Visitation for Odis Gale Linthicum, 84, of Limestone, will be from 10 a.m. Friday until the 11 a.m. funeral Mass at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Goodrich. The Rev. Doug Hauber will officiate.

Burial will be in Mount Hope Cemetery in Goodrich. Memorials may be made to the National Kidney Foundation. He died Tuesday (Aug. 16, 2011) at his home. Arrangements are by the Clancy-Gernon-Hertz Funeral Home, west Kankakee.

Mr. Linthicum was a meat cutter for Jewel, retiring in 1989. He was born Nov. 27, 1926, in New Albany, Ind., the son of Adin and Lillie Trusty Linthicum. His wife, the former Florence Krippel, whom he married April 14, 1945, died Sept. 8, 2001. He served in the U.S. Army. He enjoyed coffee with his friends, especially at Blue's Cafe, and working in his yard.

Surviving are three daughters and sons-in-law, Donna and Les Morrival, of Chebanse, Linda and Kenneth Schultz, of Reddick, and Mary and Roger James, of Limestone; 10 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren; one sister-in-law, Mary Krippel, of Kankakee; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister.

“ The Cardiopulmonary nurses and patients always enjoyed seeing gale 3 days a week. We always knew he was here because he'd leave his coffee cup on the counter:) And those cute little hats were so him. (see the pic) He was always a pleasure to have a lot of laughs with and he will be greatly missed.
