“ I miss you Libby

c schneider - July 14, 2022 at 09:10 PM

“ To the family of Olivia:

You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers during your time of bereavement. You have my deepest sympathy. ĩ¿½She will be missed not only in your family but also in her community and within her beloved ĩ¿½reenactment family

Stay strong in your faith and stay strong for each other. Take comfort in knowing that now you have a special guardian angel to watch over each of you.

May God bless all of you.

Eve

“ As a secretary at Kankakee High School I remember Libby as an amazing lady and mother who lived her life for her children. She was always there volunteering for many activities involving the kids. In particular I remember how she decorated for a prom one year. My sympathy is extended to the children and her husband. Libby was a grand lady in my eyes and will be missed.##imported-begin##Phyllis Manker##imported-end##

“ We knew Libby as a generous woman. In reenactments she enjoyed teaching others. She was always willing to help one learn about reenactment things. Tiffini says she enjoyed having conversations with her as she could converse about most anything. When she made fancy reenactment dresses for my girls she would not take cash payment, although she did accept our gifts. She and Juris worked hard contributing to Theatiki in years past.##imported-begin##Pam, Jean, & Tiffini Skimerhorn##imported-end##

“ My mother, Pat, is in a nursing home in Momence. I told her the sad news and she was very grieved. Libby was so kind to my mother, my late grandmother and indeed my whole family. She was a wonderful frind and neighbor. She was creative and kind. We will all miss her. You have our deepest sympathy##imported-begin##Lolly Ward##imported-end##
