“ My condolences to Glen and his family. Grew up playing on Cook Blvd with Glen and the other kids. Mr Hoffman was always nice to me. God Bless Him.

“ When talking to Glen, Orville was always just "Dad". We always both knew exactly who we were talking about... I had the privilege of meeting him several times - what a great guy. It would be hard to find a more down to earth and committed husband, father, friend. Hang in there, Glen, Cathy, Matt. Relish in the fond memories that were created over the many years... Stuart

“ My heart goes out to Glen and his family. We were lucky enough to be Orvilles neighbor and friends for almost 7 years and he will definitely be missed.

“ Sympathy to Orville's son & family. Knew him growing up across the alley in Bradley. He lived on S. Grand & we were on S. Wabash. Although we were younger, he was always nice to use especially when we played hoops in the alley. Rest in peace.
