“ Paige and I shared many "mini" moments, as we called them. I remember when she was really into her wigs, she could look like a completely different woman, so much that I carded her for smokes! She looked right at me and said, and I quote, " Girl, I KNOW you aren't gonna make me go get my ID! You sell to me all the time!" I had to really look at her, and saw her tattoos and realized who she was. 😊 We were getting our nails done when she told me of the most recent diagnosis, I sat there and cried, and she kept making me laugh. God, I'm going to miss you Ms Paige. May you rest in peace beautiful.
My prayers are with your boys and your family
