“ Pam was a year ahead of me at Wilmington High school so we passed each other in the hallways and I will always remember her wonderful smile. I also remember her beautiful voice when she would sometimes sing with some of our live bands during our sock hops. My thoughts and prayers go out to Pams entire family and friends .God Bless you all.

“ Pam was a very sweet and caring person. She would always bring brightness to a room that felt dark. I know she will be missed more than words can say. May her soul be at peace now and feel no more pain. To Rick..she will keep the space warm next to her til you join together again. To Sue..Know that she is resting now and sitting next to your mom and dad watching over you and the rest of the family. Love and heartfelt sympathy ..your sis in heart/friendship..Brenda

“ Though our relationship with Pam and her surviving husband Rick was little more than an acquaintance, it became palpably apparent that these were "salt of the earth" people--God's people. Pam had an inner strength that manifested itself in her always positive attitude in the face of relentless adversity.
