“ Jay, Heidi, Steve and all family my thoughts and prayers for peace and comfort. Pam was always a very special friend and hold dear to my heart. Her sweetness, caring loving, a big shoulder to lean on and awesome cooking can not be beat.

Pam was there beside me as my youngest son was born almost 27 yrs ago. Stephanie's(my daughter) oldest son was born on Pam's birthday, and her youngest was birthday is today as she is laid to rest. Last time we saw each other was 9-9-12 we met up at cracker barrel on our way back to So Illinois. It was so good to see her. I am looking forward to our reunion one day as she is having now with Brian, her parents and others.

I am unable to come but I will be there with you in my thoughts.

So good bye Pam until we meet again.

Love,

Barbara Carlton Prineas Clymore
