“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ I write this with sympathy for Scott, Vicki and all of your family. I will always remember Pat as a kind, sweet and loving lady, that was always there when you needed her. I am so glad that I got an opportunity to see her when I was home in July. I'm sorry I won't be able to attend the services, but know that my thoughts and prayers are with you, and your family.

Love,

“ We just received a call that your Mom had passed. It was a shock, as we did not know she was ill. Since hearing, we have been sitting here reminising about all the good times we used to have with your mom & dad.

"She may be gone from your sight, but never from your heart."

With deepest sympathy to all of you. We will be thinking of all of you during these next few difficult days.

“ I first met Pat when I was welcomed in to play bunco a few years ago. Everyone refered to her as Aunt Pat. She has been a true inspiration to all, with such a big and kind heart. You could always feel her sincerity when around her. I am sorry for the loss felt by her family friends.

She will always be in our hearts, and we keep her family in our thoughts and prayers.
