“ The time we had to know each other was short but certainly not uneventful. I hope that I was able to bring at least a little happiness in to your life, as you brought to mine. You gave this world a gift that I will treasure for the rest of my life, and I thank you for that.##imported-begin##Shari##imported-end##

“ I was just googling family names in the pooter and found this. I am shocked! Pat(Patsy) and I hung out together for many, many years as young girls and teen agers. I like to think we were best friends for a long time. We've lost touch with one another over the last 30 some years - which is really too bad. I see from reading the guestbook that she played Pogo....sure wish I had known that as I play it too. I guess you could say that I'm addicted! To Pats daughters: My deepest condolences and I am really so sorry to have learned this. May God be with you. I also did not realize that Dorothy had passed on too. I last spoke with her when my mother passed about 9 years ago and have often wondered how she was doing.##imported-begin##Mary Politzki##imported-end##

“ Pat you will be sorely missed. You n I had some good laughs n I really miss those.especially if you were being sarky n mad. You were as straight as an arrow. You really loved that daft car racing stuff n used to get snotty with me at times when i kidded you on about it.Nancy n I still laugh about the crab salad,she still detests making it n i had one last week n said to myself if Pat was here we could share it.John always enjoyed talking to you when i went to do something or other n let him play on my name he always laughs about the time you said you were going to marry him when he grew up.he also laughs cos you were the only one he knew who ever said i needed a slap.##imported-begin##Kerry & John MacNeill##imported-end##

“ God has called another "angel" home. I know Sassy will be so happy, but if she does happen to get just a little sassy I hope she takes the halo off (so it doesn't get bent) and tucks those wings in. We enjoyed meeting Sassy and the whole family. Our hearts go out to the family, Sue, Brandi, Michael, Adam, and Vicki and family, and Kim and family. i ½ One day our old gang will get to play games with Sassy again. i ½ i ½ God speed dear friend.##imported-begin##Bill and Dusty##imported-end##
