“ Many years ago we lived down the street from Pat and Edwin.
Theresa would come down and play with our daughter, Gina, and Pat and I would put our babies in strollers....she had Tom and I had our Karl.....and we would go for walks together. We were so sorry to hear of her passing, and extend to Edwin and all the children our deepest sympathy. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Frank & Myrna

“ Tom,

I am very sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. I have such fond memories of being at your house and them always cooking something in the kitchen, and reminding you of what time to be home.

Your mother was a wonderful lady!!

I hope your family finds peace in knowing that she no longer suffers.

Love ya,
