She was born Nov. 26, 1952, in Kankakee, the daughter of Norman and Helen Rokus Green. Surviving are her husband, Denver Fisher, whom she married Oct. 27, 1979, in Kankakee; one son and daughter-in-law, Denver Jr. and Beth Fisher of Manteno; two daughters and sons-in-law, Barbara and Mark McDermott of Bourbonnais, Melissa and Marty Martinez of Arkansas; many grandchildren and one great-grandchild; her mother of Kankakee; three brothers, Richard Green of Simpson, Brian Green of Bourbonnais, Charles Barclay of Kankakee; and several nieces and nephews. Her father is deceased.

“ To Hellen, Denver, and extended families, please accept our deepest sympathy. i;½"Patty Perty" as she affectionately called herself ("...if you're Patty Perty then I'm Cutie Judy!"--nicknames that stuck from that point on)will be sorrily missed, but affectionally remembered by all those who had the opportunity to get to know her. i;½Patty was indeed "perty" inside and out and we feel blessed that our paths crossed and she became a part of our lives.##imported-begin##Charlie & Judy Schkerke##imported-end##
