“ We are so sorry for your loss Bill. Pat was just fun to be with and talk to. Durrell Dr just always spoke LaMarres to us. Last time I talked to Pat she spoke about her grandson. He was definitely the spark in her life. You will miss her.

“ Aunt Pat was a wonderful lady. She always had a good story to tell and gave great hugs. I know that she is with Uncle Zip now, as well as my mom and the rest of the family. Bill, we are so sorry. Your mom was the best. Sending you lots of love.

“ I have lost a dear friend and co-worker. She taught me everything I know about good jewelry, using a loupe, and ordering from the home shopping network. As a co-worker, she knew the importance of keeping your ducks in a row, (as we would say). I will truly miss Pat.
