We liked to chat about the soaps and catch up after the weekends.

“ Mom,
 You have been an inspiration to me, how you have joyfully carried your cross and yet remained optimistic, never bitter.
 My lasting memories will be:
 1. 'ok pal, see you later'
 2. 'I'll buy if you'll fly'(Diet Pepsi)
 3. Calls on St. Paddy's to let me know how long the lines were at City Hall
 4. your signature perfume
 5. flair for decorating/accessorizing
 6. Baker's Square pies
 Thanks for the memories... and thanks for nurturing the man that is the father of my children, and my forever beau!
 Love,
 Mary Jo

“ Shellise, Steve, Kathleen and families,
 So sorry to hear from Mom about Pat. She truly was a beautiful person--both inside and out. I always looked forward to catching up with her at family get-togethers...her sense of humor and spunk always left me with a smile on my face, even through the adversity she faced.
 I apologize for not being able to make it home this weekend-- Pat was one of my favorites. I will keep both her and your families in my prayers during this tough time.
