“ I lost one of my best friends. I met Paul at work in 1975 and we became best fishing, bowling, and golfing buddies. We even cruised and had family vacations together.
Paul and Eileen will be back together again.
Paul, I'll miss you.

“ For our longtime friends and neighbors (40+years) we will never forget. The hand painted ceramics to the pink pigs. When Kristina was little, she was shy towards men. NOT PAUL. Now our great friend is with his love forever.

“ My heart is breaking as I read this... we were next door neighbors of Paul and Eileen for many years. Our son even called him grandpa when he was little. We periodically would see Paul out at restaurants after we moved away and it was always great to see him.

Our sincerest condolences go out to Paul, Keith and Darin along with your families for your loss. Your Dad was an amazing man!! We will miss seeing him and reminiscing about our old neighborhood.

“ Always attended his grandchildren's events ❤️
Thru the years we shared grandparents day, contests and concerts. Always, front row if available. Favorite was Kat's Veteran's Day concert ❤️
