“ I don?t usually read the obituaries but for some reason I did today and I saw Pearl?s name. With Manteno being a small town, I knew who Pearl was. I felt like I had to respond with my story. She was such a nice lady. Everyday I drove by she always had a smile and a wave for me no matter what the weather elements were. I?m going to miss that smile and wave. It truly saddened me by her passing. She had a good heart and she will be missed greatly.##imported-begin##George Reichardt##imported-end##

“ My family and I just loved Pearl. She had such a sweet heart. She always smiled at us and waved every morning and afternoon. I felt like I knew her even when I didn't. She was so dedicated to those kids. She was out there in the heat, rain and the cold. We gave her hot chocolate one cold morning and she was so appreciative. She said she had a tough time drinking it and crossing the kids so she waited to drink it until she was done. She will be missed so very much by everyone!!###imported-begin##Hope Doornbos###imported-end##
