“ Peggy was one of a kind. What do you say about one of the greatest cheerfulest loving woman ever. My earliest memories of her i was maybe 3 yeats old on Gradma And Dad Bouchards farm out in St. George Area. Cant believe i can remember that far back. I remember playing with Debbie and Danny what i called them then. So many many years have passed but will cherish the memories for many more to come. I know everyone who knew her loved her as i do. Someday i will reunite with you, Grandma and Dad my mom and many more. Until them R.I.P. Peggy

Sincerely,
Alexia (Chambers) Helm
