“ Petey couldn't talk but he had a happy voice with the most contagious laugh. He couldn't walk until the operation on his legs at 10 years old. He couldn't feed himself, dress himself, bath himself, and so many other things we take for granted. But what he COULD do was convey love, happiness, and contentment through non-verbal communication. Petey had lots of love and he let it flow freely. And it naturally was returned to him. As anyone who knew him knows, he could tug at your heartstrings with those flashing brown eyes and that beautiful megawatt smile. He would reach for your hand and kiss it. Kissy noises, hugs, and high fives were Petey's way of saying "I love you". Petey enjoyed life - riding on daddy's shoulders, a ride on daddy's riding lawn mower, playing in the swan pool, acrobats with daddy, summer nights to get a sundae, listening to music, and his favorite story 'Jack and the Beanstalk'. I miss you so much little pal and buddy. This world will never be the same. You were truly special.

I LOVE YOU PETEY, HIGH FIVE!!!

“ I can't find the words to describe how truly amazing Peter was. He had a smile that lit up a room full of people. His smile was genuine and never fake. Although he couldn't say a word, all anyone really needed was one hug or one "kissy noise" to fall in love. He had a heart that was so big and so full of love for literally everyone. He was so innocent and always incredibly happy. He enjoyed rocking his rocking chair to Doo Wop music, loved vigorously ringing wind chimes, going to the park, etc. It was the simple things in life that meant the most to him and truly made him happy. He was very inspiring to anyone he met especially his loving family. I can honestly say that I am the person I am today because of Peter. I am more than proud to say that he was my brother..and now my little angel. I will love you forever and miss you everyday buddy!

Hugs and Kissy noises, Your forever loving sister,
