“Pete was one of my Dad's best friends too. I will always remember him with a smile on his face and laughter in his voice. To me, he lived life to the fullest and he knew how to have a good time and I will always remember him smiling and laughing, with family and many friends around him. Rest in Peace.

“Pete Zuccollo was one of my father's (Carme) best friends and it was an honor to call him "Uncle Pete" when I was growing up as a kid in West Pullman. I have really fond memories of the time I spent with Uncle Pete and the Zuccollo family, Summer picnics and cookouts at the house on Eggleston, family boating in Michigan City, to weekend stays at their house in Bourbonais. I'll never forget his smile and sense of humor. I was the kid who threw the lawn Dart (Jart) in my foot while playing with Petey jr, and probably contributed to making them illegal. Uncle Pete was the Jart master. What great memories. Auntie Dorothy, Mike and Pete, Your father was the best. Now he and my Dad and all of the others we have lost will be reunited.

“ As neighbors you could not find a better family. Our son Ian was Pete's paper boy for a few years and Pete just loved him and always praised how he was the best paperboy he ever had. I am sure this has left a great impression on my son, because it sure has me. I once heard that people may never remember your exact words or what you may have done for them, but they will always recall how they made you feel. Pete always seemed to make you feel good after talking with him. I know he'll be greatly missed by many.

Pete, myself and several others spent our childhood playing and growing up together. As time passed, we all went our separate ways. After many years apart, I met Pete at a luncheon about 5 years ago and we talked about those years. I remember his sisters humming Smoke Gets In Your Eyes when they wanted to coax him into doing something. I remember the night he got hit by the car in front of his house. I cannot remember any bad things about Pete, so, he must have been pretty good. I offer my sincere condolences to Pete's family. I would also like to take this time to wish his sisters, Marie and Palmira the best. I can still see Pal sitting at the piano and I know she will remember me.
