

Phillip Mazeika

December 15, 1949 - October 30, 2010

Phillip V. Mazeika, 60, of Grant Park, died Saturday (Oct. 30, 2010) at Riverside Medical Center. A memorial Mass will be celebrated at 11 a.m. Saturday at St. George Catholic Church in Bourbonnais. The Rev. Dan Belanger will officiate. Cremation rites have been accorded. Arrangements are by the Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home in Manteno.

Tribute Wall

JA

“ Joseph Albert lit a candle in memory of Phillip Mazeika

joseph albert - January 28, 2012 at 07:35 PM

“ Dad you have no idea how much I loved you. ĩ½During this last year we became real close. ĩ½I am still waiting for you to walk in the front door or call me and ask whats for dinner. ĩ½I miss seeing you at night sit there and talk to the kids about their day. ĩ½I wish you could of stayed longer because we all needed you here. ĩ½My kids are missing you so bad! ĩ½We love you always and forever!###imported-begin###Crystal Mazeika###imported-end###

November 02, 2010 at 01:03 PM

JA

I was one of your dads best buddies back in the days when we all live on 63rd street in chicago. W e did just about everything togetherback then. He was a true friend and buddy. I would see him every now and then on the street when he was at Holland driving the truck. I just heard of his death yesterday from a fellow Holland driver.. I feel so bad I truly lost a great friend crystal and u had one hellof a great DAD.

joe albert - May 14, 2011 at 02:16 PM