

Phyllis Baron

June 15, 1916 - January 20, 2005

Phyllis Baron Phyllis I. Baron, 88, of Bourbonnais, died Thursday (Jan. 20, 2005) at the Miller Center in Kankakee. A committal service will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday in the chapel at Mt. Calvary Cemetery, Kankakee. Rev. Dennis Settles will officiate. Memorials may be made for Alzheimer's Research or to Hospice of Kankakee Valley. Clancy-Gernon-Hertz Funeral Home, West Kankakee, is in charge of arrangements. She was born June 15, 1916, in Chebanse, the daughter of Alfred and Elsie Ollrich Boehrnsen. Her husband, Edward Baron, whom she married June 11, 1936, in Papineau, died April 11, 1989. Surviving are one son and daughter-in-law, Dale E. and Rebecca M. Baron of Edwardsville; two daughters and one son-in-law, Bev and Jack Cooper of Kankakee, Bonnie J. Baron of Bourbonnais; five grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews. One brother, Alan Boehrnsen; and one infant sister, Alpha Eloise Boehrnsen, are deceased. Mrs. Baron was a member of St. John's United Church of Christ. She also attended St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church. She enjoyed crafts, hooking rugs, reading and cooking.

Tribute Wall

“ NULL##imported-begin##PHIL & CATHY BOEHM##imported-end## ”

January 20, 2005 at 02:41 PM