“ Phyllis babysat me and my sisters and brother when we were young. After I grew up I met my husband at her house.. We later lived next door to her for several years. I'll always remember the fun times we had

“ My mom, Sharon and Phyllis were best friends from back in high school. I always loved her like an aunt. Phyllis and I spent time together, she went with me to Tennessee when moms husband died. Omg we had a blast! She was there for me when my mom died, and again when my grandma, Freda died! She will always hold a special place in my heart! I will miss her! She was a "HOOT". We had a lot of laughs. May she be at rest now. Prayers for her family.
