“ To the Family of Phyllis Trubach, I remember how Phyllis would come up to the front desk and ask for candy. So sweet and so polite each and every time she came to the front desk. Many times she would help herself, but always asked first. Phyllis also attended my worship services. Phyllis was such a sweet and kind lady that is missed , daily. Phyllis attended a lot of different activities. It was good to see Phyllis out and about. May the Good Lord bring you and your family members comfort and healing.
