“ Aunt Phyllis would call my mom, her sister Barbara, and talk for hours. If mom wasn't home she would talk to me for hours then when mom came home talk to her for hours. My wife Marsha got introduced to Phyllis this way when she answered the phone the first time and she talk with her for an hour until mom came home. Now her, mom, and uncle Steve can talk for eternity. Love and prayers, Ed Castellano and family

My Aunt Phyllis was a story teller, we recently visited and I could not wait to see her again for more of a family history lesson. May God rest her soul.
