

Phyllis Zordani

July 12, 2005

Phyllis N. Zordani, 67, of Manteno, passed away Tuesday (July 12, 2005) at Provena St. Mary's Hospital in Kankakee. At her request there will be no services. Cremation rites will be accorded. Memorials can be made to the American Cancer Society or to the Eastern Illinois University Department of Communication Disorders. Clancy-Gernon Funeral Home, Manteno, is in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Zordani was a speech language pathologist and taught in the Chicago, Sheldon, Donovan, Crescent City, Cissna Park and Wellington school districts. She was born July 10, 1938, in Gary, Ind., to Carroll and Edith Kannmacher. She married Robert Zordani in Chicago in 1962. Phyllis was a member of the Stonegate Villas Red Hat Society and enjoyed quilting and doing crafts. She is survived by three children, Robert Zordani Jr. of Charleston, James Zordani of Manteno and Alicia (Roni) Squires of Watseka. She is also survived by her sister, Marilyn (Jack) Fasig of Sydney, Mont.; two brothers, Jon (Crystal) Kannmacher of Sandwich, Lowell Kannmacher of Eureka; brother-in-law, Gerald (Mary Kay) Zordani of Chicago; sister-in-law, Janeen Zordani of Chicago; and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, Robert, and one nephew, Mark Zordani. Phyllis touched the lives of many students. Teaching and helping others were her passion. She will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved her.

Tribute Wall

“ Nadine was a fun person and we had many good times together during the high school years and while she was in college. I last saw her at her mother's visitation. You all have my sympathy and I share in your grief. Barbara (Blunk) Spraggins”

“ Phyllis was a delightfully upbeat speech pathologist who loved all kids despite their problems. Phyllis worked well with the Sheldon staff and was one of the best speech teachers we had over the years. She touched the lives of many children. Her smile and optimism will be missed. Vickie Webster”
