“ I worked with Ann for nearly twelve years at Armstrong and remember her fondly. She was a dedicated employee who always did her best. One of the happy memories is the trip which she planned for some of us employees to travel to Chicago to see the performance of Swan Lake ballet. How wonderful! I always looked forward to her cards with hand written notes. She kept me informed about Armstrong employees after I had moved many times. I will miss those notes and calls. My sympathy to her family and friends. Phyllis Garvey now in Indiana.

“ My condolences to the extended family, friends, and classmates of Ann Prince. She was a faithful woman who always showed up early for Mass (parking and seating for sure) but also to pray and share conversations with others.

I looked forward to her beautiful smile and, her Christmas cards with a handwritten messages inside.

Rest in Peace, Ann! Continue to pray for us in the Communion of Saints!
