“ I remember when you worked with my brother Billjoe at Dennys and my mom, Harry, and Billjoe at the dessert place in Manteno. I remember when you would jam in my parents basement with Billjoe and a few others. I remember you dont like lettuce on your tacos lol but mostly the way you would listen and laugh as a true friend how wonderful! I will miss you lots RS now you will be joining all the rockers upstairs! Luv ya God bless & prayers. Karon aka Betty Boop

“ Always crack up at that hard of hearing waitress at the Moose. We'd call you Steeler and she finally asked me, Why you guys call him "Killer"? I laughed and said, he didnt mean to kill those guys, he just wanted to beat them up! She was horrified and I think she stayed away from you! Haha Even now retelling the wildness of my youth stories, your name comes up quite often! RIP Randy.....

“ Randy was a good guy,he was a quiet person,atleast he was back in th 80's,he tried to teach me guitar but I would rather watch him play than me learn,Blackout by the Scorpions was the song that sticks out in my head.I have not seen Randy since around 1988 or 1989 but he is and always be remembered by me.I wish his family and friends the best!! Rest in Peace Randy
