“ We wish we could've had the opportunity to say goodbye to Randy and to express our love and support for his family. Unfortunately, we were out of town when he passed and were unable to return in time to attend services. We want all of you to know that we are grieving with you. If there is anything we can do for you, let us know. We are more than willing to help in any way we can. You remain in our prayers.##imported-begin##Gerald & Kathy Schmidt##imported-end##

“ I just passed the house the other day and should have stopped by instead of making some Valentine cookies to take over and visit. I pray that the Spirit of God will hold your family in quiet rest after such a struggle. It has been such a pleasure knowing Randy through the Green Club too. He was always there to lend a hand. Our prayers are with you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##Carol Buente##imported-end##
