“ Uncle Ray, I will never forget you as you were one of my favorite Uncles. I remember you & Aunt Delma coming to visit us in Florida. Many happy & awesome memories were made then and will never be forgotten. Also, my memories take me back to when you were in the Navy and you lived with us for awhile. I was pretty young, but I remember you picking me up and sitting me on the kitchen counter. You'd pour us each a glass of buttermilk and put a stack of graham crackers between us to munch on and you'd tell me funny stories to make me giggle. Such a sweet memory to me. You also bought me 2 baby chicks for Easter one year. They were dyed, one pink and one blue. I named them Ricky & Lucy. Mom ended up giving them to the egg man. Then there were all the times we'd go into Sears to shop and seeing you at work there. We'd always had to stop and chat awhile. My goodness, I could go on & on!! You will be sorely missed Uncle Ray! RIP!!
