“ Becky was such a strong woman. She helped me so much. When I first moved to Bradley (she was my neighbor) my Grandmother had passed. Becky helped me through that. I didn't think I could survive that. She taught me so much. AND my goodness did we have fun! So many great memories. It breaks my heart that she isn't with us any longer. She was so caring, loving, and strong. She is and will be greatly missed.

“ Becky and I were childhood friends living in Bel Aire subdivision, we went to grade school together spending many weekends at 'slumber parties ' where there was little slumber but tons of laughs and gossip.lol Went to BBCHS and celebrated our class 50th reunion in September. I was so glad that Becky attended(thank you Debbie for making that happen). We visited and caught up. She was so happy and we all had such a good time reminiscing.
My first thought when I heard the news ...lmao so glad we spent that time together ❤️
