“ Memories of Dick....well too numerous to write....undoubtly loved him, for the love he gave, to family, friends, and country !! Loved the warmth of his smile, his carefree attitude of life after enduring what he had in life. His hugs that were tight and sincere! The work and pride that he put into any project that he took on, and there were many !! Not only at his own home, which was a reflecton of him and his welcoming & loving soul, but also for community, and family. It is an honor to be married to a man named after Richard, and a loss of life that we all miss. With much love,
