“ My condolences are with my father and his extended family in this time of loss. ĩ½My grandfather is not a man I knew that well, or saw that much but I loved him as a member of my family. ĩ½Though our visits were seldom, I know he had a great heart and did his best in a difficult situation. ĩ½I wish I could have known him as a person and as a grandfather. He will be missed.##imported-begin##Jennifer Cannon##imported-end##

“ My deepest thoughts are with my family in these sad times. I am glad the people who loved him the most were able to show him in his last week. I am sure he will never forget our faces. I am also sure thoses faces who were vacant, he will wounder why. I loved my grandfather very much. I always had time for him and I am sorry there wasnt more.I had no excusses not to be with him in his last moment. He was to important to me not to be there. I know what goes around comes around and I didnt want that on my plate. I love you gramps and I hope that the speech I prepaid in memory of you, I hope it help you find your heaven. I will see you again someday. ĩ½##imported-begin##Kathleen Harris Callard##imported-end##
