“ I'm so sorry for your loss; Rich and I worked together at AMICO and he was always very kind and friendly to everybody. He was very good at what he did and was a true asset to the company. It saddens me to know that he's gone, but I believe he's now in the presence of Christ.

My Father was a first cousin to his Mother and we would see he and his beautiful wife at family lunches and such. He was always nice, sweet and helpful to everyone. The world will miss him. Rich Miller Sr

Sandy and Violet, sorry about Richard's death. Too soon we lose the ones we love. He was a good man and a very handsome man. I remember when we'd all get together with our families and have a chicken dinner and an afternoon/evening of board or card games. I have always had a special place in my heart for all of you. Prayers for a difficult time, but know that Rich is in a happy place. Love to all your families. Jeannie, Judy .Bobby and Nancy Crawford.
