“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the McCorkle family. I remember the good times Dick and I had at all the Chamber of Commerce events. He always enjoyed the good times wherever that might have been. It was a rare scene to see Dick without a smile. May God bless you all with the peace and understanding that he is in a better place than us.

“ Richard was my landlord for a short time and he did get things done when I asked for them to be done. To his Mom, I realize that this is hard but fold on to your faith in God, he really does have the best plan, even when we can not see it. I know that you will make it through and lean on Ferne as she can help.
