“ I was always very fond of my uncle Richard. I looked up to him (and not just because he was much taller than me !). He was a strong, big-hearted, soulful man. I remember a vision he once shared about himself as a large tree deeply rooted into the earth with powerful arms and hands reaching outward to the world around him and to the heavens above. Rest in peace, my uncle, and love to all of the wonderful family for whom he will forever remain an important part.
