“ Therese and Erik. Words can not express how sorry we are for the passing of dear Rich. He was such a nice man. Always had a smile. Couldn’t meet a nicer person. May he rest in peace I am sorry we will be out of town when his services occur. Otherwise we would be there for you. You will have many great memories to share.

“ We were saddened to learn of Rich’s death, and we extend our very deepest sympathy and condolences to Terese, his son, Erik and Erik’s wife, Stacy, and his granddaughters, Olivia and Sophia. Rich and Terese will be well-remembered as super-volunteers for every worthwhile organization that asked them for their help. Even-tempered, composed, professional, and always amiable are qualities that defined Rich.

We are so sorry at your loss of this wonderful husband, Dad, and grandpa.

I'm the secretary of the Kankakee River Basin Commission Board and truly enjoyed every meeting with Rich. He was always up to date on the most current activities surrounding the Kankakee River and had extensive knowledge on all topics relating to the river. His sense of humor would always surface during our meetings and make the discussions quite entertaining. Our board will miss him tremendously. Our sympathy and prayers go out to his family.

“ Rich was such a wonderful man with an awesome smile and robust laugh. I have very fond memories of him and Therese when I would visit them as a young child. He shares a birthday with my own father and I have always found that connection to be very fitting. His loss from this world will be felt for a very long time and by many. Rest easy, Rich. You will be deeply missed!
