“ My uncle Pat and my cousin Richard came to my house cousin Bob, to work on my back patio. The two of them fought and screamed at each other, but at the end of the day they both had such a great time it was unbelievable today. now The both of them are in heaven together. Some day will all be to gather again

“ I remember one of the most recent times I saw my uncle, and he had met a lifelong friend of my sister and I. Her name is Eden, but he somehow thought it was something so far off that Jaime, my sister and I couldn't help but laugh a little and this was during the loss of our grandma so the laugh was much needed. I'm going to miss his small, subtle jokes that he'd slip in here and there when coming to visit/at family functions. I'm just counting on the fact that he is resting with our other loved ones ❤️

“ Richard Starkey was my 1st Class Career Counselor on board my first Sea Command, USS YELLOWSTONE AD-41. Even as we were the same age, Richard was an E-6 and I just a new recruit E-2. I looked up to him as he helped guided me information and direction for my Navy Career. Richard and Bobbi were the sweetest couple and very much fun to hang out on Liberty with. I appreciate Richard's influence and guidance which helped me pave the way for a retirement from the U.S. Navy myself. Fare Winds and Following Seas Shipmate. R.I.P.
