“ To the Family and Friends of Rita, I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Rita. I spent a lot of time with Rita while she was at Presence Heritage Village in Kankakee. Rita would attend all of my worship services. Rita always sat up in front. Rita was a great person to have a conversation with on a variety of topics. Whenever I would ask Rita if she wanted me to push her wheelchair she would always say, "No thank you." Rita was an independent lady. I enjoyed my time with Rita. She was a real sweetheart. May you feel the presence of God as he brings comfort and healing during this time of sadness...
