“ Sis

How can I begin to let you go? I will miss you very much my sister my friend .I love you so much and I have always looked up to you. You have remained a positive role in my life and one who would guide with love and understanding. I will forever cherish all our memories that we made. I will miss hearing your melodious laughter on the telephone and talking to you almost daily.

You and I shared so many special times together and I am so grateful for them. If only once more to hear the phone ring and to hear you on the other end say,? Hey, Tambo you busy?? , In that sweet voice of yours. You are so blessed with a wonderful man who loves you so and I saw that love when I was visiting. You had many obstacles to overcome and he was right by your side. He focused on your every need. My dearest sister, my heart is so heavy but I know at this moment you are there with no pain. That is my only comfort in this all. You were so scared of the pain. There are no more hurts now for you and no more phone calls for me .I love you.
