“ I remember my late wife Susan getting piano lessons from Robbie. Both were cheerful to spend that quality time together. We miss all of you.

“ One memory I have of Robbie is how she offered to help when Mike and I wanted to attend a function at E.Free and I had a prior commitment and was selling my poetry art at Willow Creek. So Robbie volunteered to help. I love her heart and how she reflected Christ. Heaven is rejoicing to have Robbie right now even though her family and friends miss her. I'm thankful I got to know her. Such a special person. I'm praying for those who are grieving right now. Praying God holds you close as you grieve.

“ I remember the times I spent at the Hinkles with weekend fun of singing and guitars and Robbie with her doll or dolls. Always with her. Robbie playing the piano is also a great memory. She was a natural at the keys. .
